

ALLA NATIONAL WEBINAR

Exploring Australia's New Right to Disconnect: Taking Charge of What You Can Leave Behind

Australia's new right to disconnect is poised to reshape work dynamics in our constantly connected society. Dr Gabrielle Golding will leverage her scholarly expertise to scrutinise the right from an Australian perspective, juxtaposing it with similar rights in international jurisdictions. She will delve into Australia's recent legislative development of the right, emphasising its necessity for both employers and employees. Practical strategies will be examined to facilitate the effective implementation of the right in Australian workplaces, scheduled to take effect from 26 August 2024 (and a year later for small business employers).

DATE Monday 22 April 2024

TIME 12:30pm AEST; 12:00PM ACST

Online via Zoom webinar

REGISTER HERE

Dr Gabrielle Golding is a Senior Lecturer in Law at The University of Adelaide whose research focuses on the intersection between employment and contract law. Her latest research includes her 2023 monograph, 'Shaping Contracts for Work' (Oxford University Press), as well as publications concerning menstrual leave and the right to disconnect from work. She is a regular media commentator on topical employment law matters, having been interviewed by the BBC, ABC, SBS, Guardian, and Australian Financial Review, as well as commissioned to write for The Sydney Morning Herald, The Age, The Australian, and The Monthly.

This event is free of charge, but places are limited.